

Kasey McKinney – Testimonial

... With help from the best teachers and therapist he is a happy, healthy, and thriving young man. He is excited to go to school each day and eager to learn new things. ACA has built his confidence up in ways we only prayed could happen. One summer, he helped with a school project to construct new picnic tables. It was such a proud moment for him. Just one of the many life skills Ryan has learned from his journey at ACA.
